

Mommydog (feat. CJ Smith)

Asher Roth

[Intro]

Fly alone, fly alone, far away

Fly alone, fly alone, far away[Verse 1: Asher Roth]

I appreciate your perspective, especially cause you get it
Essentially it feels destined, no questions or second guessing

But my impression is kinda like Kevin left by his parents

Forgetting left him alone at the home protecting it and

He ain't know it but he was growing

Confessing that

Even though ain't perfected

It's golden, hold it it's precious

And now were older

Thread has decided to reconnect us

I ain't never headed out without feathers made outta heaven

I won't...

Fly alone, fly alone, far away

Fly alone, fly alone, far away[Hook: C.J Smith]

I have been away for so long

I just wanna come home

Miss my mom and my dog

I'm on my way

I, I, I been away for so, been away for so long

I just wanna come home

I'm on my way[Verse 2: Asher Roth]

There's something to be cherished about the familiarity

Parents and family, helping hands that have taken care of me

Barely would've made it without those relationships

I wouldn't trade for riches or the other things they say you should

But it's true, it'd be cool if I had a pool in the backyard

Hundred-acre home with a fast car

Facts are, I don't care for it if they ain't there for it

Need the perfect people in my life for me to share it with

Fly alone, fly alone, far away

Fly alone, fly alone, far away[Hook: C.J Smith]

I have been away for so long

I just wanna come home

Miss my mom and my dog

I'm on my way

I, I, I been away for so, been away for so long

I just wanna come home

I'm on my wayFly alone, fly alone

Fly alone, fly alone, fly away
