

Hello, Brooklyn

All Time Low

This city, so pretty
All the moon-lit skies will be hanging like a cigarette
So stunning, start running
Tonights like a knife which she cut me with her kiss I bleed red lips, your unbelievable
Can't miss this chance to take you
And here's my invitation (invitation) Hello brooklyn, hey LA
Take the streets all night cause you sleep all day
When the world comes crashing down, who's ready to party? (party, party, party)
Hello brooklyn, hey LA
Coast to coast, I'll take you down in flames
Let the good times roll, we can let go
Everybody knows that there's a party at the end of the world
Woah oh, woah oh, woah oh, oh
This city, was your city
Heels on the sidewalk begging for a backbeat
Don't worry, I fight dirty Tonights like a right hook, knock you off your feet
I'll be yours truly, unbelievable
Can't miss this chance to take you And here's your invitation (invitation)
Hello brooklyn, hey LA

Kiss it all goodbye
Tonight you've never been more alive
You're so alive
You're not afraid to die And I can see it in your eyes, your eyes
