Rocco Granata

you're hard to hug tough to talk to and I'll never fall asleep when you're in my bed all you give me is a heartbeat I've turned into a statue and it makes me feel depressed cause the only time you open up is when we get undressed you don't love me
big fucking deal
I'll never tell you how I feel
you don't love me
not a big deal
I'll never tell you how i feel
It almost feels like a joke to play out a part
when you are not the starring role in someone else's heart you know I'd rather walk alone than play a supporting role if I can't get a starring role sometimes I ignore you so I'll feel in control cause really
I adore you and I can't leave you alone fed up with the fantasies they cover what is wrong c'mon baby let's just get drunk forget we don't get on you're like my dad
you get on well I sing my best regards from hell
If I can't get starring role I never send for love i never had a heart to mend because before the start began i always saw the end I wait for you to open up to give yourself to me but nothing's ever gonna give up never set you free yeah I'll never set you free
