

Your Number's Up

ICE NINE KILLS

Hello?

Hello there

Who's this?

Soon you'll discover

I'm sorry, sir, but I think you have the wrong number

In?just?a minute you'll?be dying to hang on the?line

Tell me your name and I'll tell you mine

My name? But why?

You picked up the phone

When mom and dad left you alone

I want to know who I'm looking at

A dial tone, a deadly ring

So far away from everything

No silver screens or movie scenes

When your number's up, it's time to scream

Who's there?

Don't you know not to ask those questions?

What will become of me?

You ought to know it's a sure death sentence

Have you not seen this movie?

Freddy, Michael, Jason Voorhees

Learn from those that came before me

Next question, same Category

Such a familiar story

I'm hanging up the phone

Wrong answer

*My mom and dad will soon be home

I won't fall victim to the blade

I'm not afraid of a-*

A dial tone, a deadly ring

So far away from everything

No silver screens or movie scenes

When your number's up, it's time to scream

What do you want?

I want to see what your insides look like

How could you be so evil?

Our film is nearly finished and for you there is no sequel

Guess I'll leave your body on the cutting room floor

All bets are off

I just buried Drew Barrymore

When the cops find the phone (Just let me go!)

The call's still listed as unknown

It's the end of the line, and all that's left is a-

A dial tone, a deadly ring

So far away from everything

No silver screens or movie scenes

When your number's up, it's time to scream

'Cause the knife in you brings out the life in me
A lesson in a slasher's dream
When your number's up, it's time to scream
Time to scream
A dial tone, a deadly ring
So far away from everything
No silver screens or movie scenes
When your number's up, it's time to scream
Woodsboro Police Department, what's your emergency?
I'm being attacked at 1220 Craven Lane! Please! He's gonna kill me!
