

Drunk and I Miss You (feat. Decco)

KIDDO

I'm alright on the weekends
This is how I'm gonna work it
I'm the fire and the lightning
And I let it out
Is this how you're gonna leave me?
Is this how you really want it?
Are you ready to delete me?
'Cause I'm running out And I say ooo, nananana, don't get enough
Ooo, lalalala, let's work it out
Who can say I can't fix you?
Who can say it's not worth it?
Isn't alright that we go? Go solo
If that's what we wanted why are we so low, low?
Ooo, nana, we got issues
Ooo, nana, I can't fix you
But I've been out here fighting to let go
Now I'm drunk and I miss you
Drunk and I miss you
Now I'm drunk and I miss you Didn't think you would believe me
When I said that I don't need it
We letting all our feelings
Till we had enough
'Cause you told me that I hurt you
Just the way that I am hurt too
And I wish we could reverse it
Take it from the top
And I say ooo, nananana, don't get enough
Ooo, lalalala, let's work it out
Who can say I can't fix you?
Who can say it's not worth it? Isn't alright that we go? Go solo
If that's what we wanted why are we so low, low?
Ooo, nana, we got issues
Ooo, nana, I can't fix you
But I've been out here fighting to let go
Now I'm drunk and I miss you
Drunk and I miss you
Now I'm drunk and I miss you Get up, get in my bed
Get up, come back again
You got me falling for [?]
You got me calling for rebounds
Get up, get in my head
Get up, come back again

I don't know what I will face on
This is what love really takes on
