

10,000 Towns

Eli Young Band

Hell Yeah, Amen
Hallelujah, how ya been 8 point, 8 ball
first base, last call
Chrome grill, mudflap
Party back in the pines Fight song, tom tom
Friday night, pom pom
Redneck, hip hop
County courthouse clock
Beauty shop turnin off that open sign Anywhere the crossroads hit
(Anywhere the crossroads hit)
Doesn't matter where it is
I can tell ya this
We'll be hittin that Main street hot on a cool night
Sneakin a six pack kiss at a red light
Circlin up out back behind that Texaco
Brushin the blonde hair out of her blue eyes
Countin the stars out under the big sky
Passin the bottle round just to see how far it goes
Some folks swear we ain't got one prayer left inside
But I know everything's gonna be alright
As long as this is goin on in 10, 000 towns tonight Steeples, dive bars
Air and water no charge
Everybody knows who's goin to the graveyard
Pulls over as they're passin by Yeah that circle's gonna be unbroken in the by and by Later on tonight
We'll be hittin that Main street hot on a cool night
Sneakin a six pack kiss at a red light
Circlin up out back behind that Texaco
Brushin the blonde hair out of her blue eyes
Countin the stars out under the big sky
Passin the bottle round just to see how far it goes
Some folks swear we ain't got one prayer left inside
But I know everything's gonna be alright
As long as this is goin on in 10, 000 towns tonight
10, 000 towns tonight We'll be hittin that Main street hot on a cool night
Sneakin a six pack kiss at a red light
Circlin up out back behind that Texaco
Brushin the blonde hair out of her blue eyes
Countin the stars out under the big sky
Passin the bottle round just to see how far it goes

Some folks swear we ain't got one prayer left inside
But I know everything's gonna be alright
As long as this is goin on in 10, 000 towns tonight
10, 000 towns tonight
