

Rain

Patty Griffin

It's hard to listen to a hard, hard heart
    Beatin' close to mine
Poundin' up against the stone and steel
Walls that I won't climb Sometimes a hurt is so deep, deep, deep
    You think that you're gonna drown
    Sometimes all I can do is weep, weep, weep
With all this rain fallin' down Strange, how hard it rains now
    Rows and rows of big dark clouds
When I'm holding on underneath this shroud
    Rain
It's hard to know when to give up the fight
Some things you want will just never be right
It's never rained like it has to night before Now, I don't wanna beg you, baby
    For something maybe you could never give
    I'm not lookin' for the rest of your life
I just want another chance to live Strange, how hard it rains now
    Rows and rows of big dark clouds
When I'm holdin' on underneath this shroud
    Rain Strange, how hard it rains now
    Rows and rows of big dark clouds
When I'm holdin' on underneath this shroud
    Rain
    Strange, how hard it rains now
    Rows and rows of big dark clouds
When I'm still alive underneath this shroud
    Rain, oh, rain, oh, rain
