

Floating (feat. Haley)

Kaskade

Now in the silence
I find myself alone.
It's just what I wanted,
To be on my own.
Floating on the water,
Staring in tonight.
Soaking up the magic,
Specks of tiny light.
(Oh)

Now in this small bed,
When all have gone away,
It's the time that I ponder;
The time that I prayed.
Floating on the water,
Staring in tonight.
Soaking up the magic,
Specks of tiny light.
Floating on the water,
Staring in tonight.
Soaking up the magic,
Space of time you light.
(Oh)
