

Slowburn

Systematic

This lets me serve your purpose
I claim what's mine and drown you
Bloodletting your subconscious
A loss of all control. And you serve them well. I spread your life wide open
And you don't like what you see
This trepanning won't ease you
A loss of all control.
And you serve them well
Trade yours in for gold
Bought and sold. I've come to reap this reward
I brake you
Forsake you
My time to even the score. Controls your mind
Give it time. And you serve them well
Trade yours in for gold
Bought and sold.
I've come to reap this reward
I brake you
Forsake you
My time to even the score. You served them well.
