

C'mon

Mario

Where did you come from?
I wanna thank your mom
For bringin' you into this life and makin' you my type
Don't hold this against me
But I cant help but stare by you over there
Want you right hereC'mon baby baby c'mon
C'mon baby baby c'mon
Can't you look at me and tell that you got something that I want
So c'mon baby baby baby baby baby baby
Baby baby baby baby baby c'mon
You got the best lookin' jeans I ever seen
So baby won't you shake it for me
Don't play hard to get
You ain't got a thing to lose
I know you feel me too
Starin' from across the room
I just wanna get closer to ya
We can talk later, right now I wanna see you move c'monC'mon baby baby c'mon
