

Anticipation

Kevin McCall

Girl when we're fuckin,
My heart is beating like 100 miles an hour
Your body drippin, I got her lookin like you hopped out the shower, yeah
You have that bomb, I got your panties falling like the twin towers
So imagine what it's gonna be like
When I really get it, get it
Imagine what it's gonna feel like
When I really hit it, hit it
Imagine what it's gonna feel like
When I'll finally get you what you've been waiting for, for, whoa
Ain't at it yet, but I already want more I know that you can't wait til I lay you down
But waiting is the best, part, oh na na
Anticipation, oh na na
Anticipation, oh yeah, aha
No need for rushing, go in the touching
I'ma have your body trembling
The way I've been beating like it's a drum
You're gonna want to call me Timbaland, yeah
She said, let me get you, like I'm out the dresser
Before you go away
Father forgive me for all my sins
But it feels like I got heaven in my hands, whoa
You can't rush perfection girl, no
I'm out to get what you've been waiting for, for
Ain't at it yet, but I already want more I know that you can't wait til I lay you down
But waiting is the best, part, oh na na
Anticipation, oh na na
Anticipation, oh yeah, aha
Girl you know you want it, why you tryina hold back
I'ma drive you crazy, you gonn need some Prozac
I know how to find it,
I don't need a low jack
Going down south baby, I don't need a roadmap
To find your G, spot, and baby girl when I'll find it
We gonn be fucking and grinding, until you say stop
You been there just waiting, you're fiending for this sensation
And baby I know that you can't wait til I lay you down
But waiting is the best, part, oh na na
Anticipation, oh na na
Anticipation, oh yeah
