

Well-Rested

Miranda Lambert

Well this moment is heavy
For me I'm not ready
Like a caged bird barely set free
Forgive me I'm finding my wings While my body is present
My heart is absent
And my mind is racing
My feet are pacing It's your tail you're chasing
It's the past I'm erasing
And a heart can't be tested
When it ain't well rested
My gears are grinding
I'm leaving, you're arriving
It's a matter of timing
I guess loving ain't surviving It's your tail that you're chasing
It's the past I'm erasing
And a heart can't be tested
When it ain't well rested
It's your tail that you're chasing
It's the past I'm erasing
And a heart can't be tested
When it ain't well rested Don't waste your investment
If a heart ain't well rested
My heart ain't well rested
