[RL]

Want you listed on the first flight out?
I gotta see you right now
What was i thinking about?
Should have never left home with out sayn i loved you.
When i heard the tears over the fone
I knew it was time to get home
Window seat in a exit row
Anythin to let you know

[CHORUS]

Just can't tell you no stop
Just can't let you go not
Girl you know you so hot
I'll give you anything
Anything i've got
Just can't tell you no stop
Just can't let you go not
Girl you know you so hot
I'll give you anything
Anything i've got

I had a little fun out the other night
You got mad 'cause i went out with the guys
Should have stayed with her saw tears in her eyes
I don't know why i didn't tell them bye bye
You was Bitchn Straight up trippn
They was listen'n they was laughn

Now their at home with theirs
Doin just fine

And i gotta get home to myne

Oh[CHORUS x2]There's been too much

Time we put into this

To let it slip away

To let each other go

We've cried together

Too many times

To let you walk away

That's why i'm coming home

To work it out[CHORUS till the end of the song]
