

Shattered

The Haunted

Stare at my reflection,
a face to me shown unknown.
Cleanse with perfection,
no man shall stop the seeds I've sown. You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you. I feel my energy rising.
Shatter me who shatter dares... Don't trust your eyesight, it will deceive your every glance at me.
I feel no sorrow, kill...
like there's no tomorrow. You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you.
I feel my energy rising.
No way to keep this fury controlled. My hand shakes with anger.
Stare unto me as I shatter your soul. Shattered. Goats head, Daed eyes.
No reconcile. Submit to none.
I am divine. Shattered,
Shattered... You call me evil.
I'm but the instrument of the Lord.
You call it senseless,
I see a need to cleanse this putrid world.
You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you. I feel my energy rising.
No way to keep this fury controlled. My hand shakes with anger,
Your life... Shattered.
