Pirpagal thaame varumI'll meet you where the sky is torn

I'll meet you in the end

I'll meet you before the world was born

When we had not a care

This is an invitation

To a high location

From someone who wants to be loved

This is a meditation

On your radio station

If you like it, you can sing alongAhimsa

AhimsaI'll meet you where there is no weeping

Your tears are now a stream

I'll meet you where there is no sleeping

But we wake up to dream

This is an invitation

To a high location

From someone who wants to be loved

This is a meditation

On your radio station

If you like it, you can sing alongAhimsa
