

Here for a Reason

Ashes Remain

You are not forgotten
You are not alone
You think you're worthless but you're worth it
And he calls you his own
Made in his image
You were made for more
You think there is no plan that it's all by chance
But don't believe that anymore Every time that you wake up breathing
Every night when you close your eyes
Every day that your heart keeps beating
There's purpose for your life
So don't give up
Don't lay down
Just hold on
Don't quite now
Every breath that you take has meaning
You are
Here for a reason
You're, you're
Here for a reason
If you've spent your days
Just getting by
When you feel useless he can use you
And show you what it means to be alive (alive) Every time that you wake up breathing
Every night when you close your eyes
Every day that your heart keeps beating
There's purpose for your life
So don't give up
Don't lay down
Just hold on
Don't quite now
Every breath that you take has meaning
You are
Here for a reason
Every day
Is a gift from above
Don't throw it away
When it feels like too much He'll be there Every time that you wake up breathing
Every night when you close your eyes
Every day that your heart keeps beating
There's purpose for your life
So don't give up

Don't lay down
Just hold on
Don't quite now
Every breath that you take has meaning
You are
Here for a reason
