

Cosmic Angel

Grizfolk

She's my god and I'm her love
Celestial body from above
I throw a diamond in a well
Forget all that I know 'Cause I just wanna live inside your eyes
In between a million different stars
Underneath the feeling of it all
Outside the garden of your thoughts Fallen this far, still confused as to what you are
If heaven is your heart, this hell I've been living in is so dark
I'm her muse and she's my queen
She's the serpent of the sea
She makes waves we know them well
And I'll be drowning when they call Well I just wanna live inside your eyes
In between a million different stars
Underneath the feeling of it all
Outside the garden of your thoughts I've fallen this far, still confused as to what you are
If heaven is your heart, this hell I've been living in is so dark
So dark, so dark
So dark, so dark
Fallen this far, still confused as to what you are
If heaven is your heart, this hell I've been living in is so dark
So dark, so dark
So dark, so dark
