

Passer By

Mattafix

She said no words when
I chose to stand away.
In the background of my Mind when the sun rose
I chose the shade
Never wanted never
Needed all the priceless
Things to say
But I know the time
Alone was overdue
I know time alone was
Overdue
Overdue
At times rock stone is
The only bed that's made
So I have the faith come
What will come what may
Passer by in pain She read those words that
I chose to throw
Her way
And the time they were
Laden with hesitation that
I made
And if you're ever my
Endeavour once again then
I'll be changed
But I know that it ain't
So my hope refrains
Refrains
At time rock stone is
The only bed that's made
So I have the faith come
What will come what may
Passer by in pain At time rock stone is
The only bed that's made
So I have the faith come
What will come what may
And when I rise alone
It don't feel the same
So I have the faith come
What will come what may

Passer by in pain
