

3 Words

Ashanti

I wish I could turn my body inside out
So you could see every piece of me
My heart can't contain this
My mouth don't explain it
It ain't enough to tell you what I mean
There's only so many words I could use to tell you what you do to me
You say you sexually penetratin that you do to me
I just can't explain it
Picasso couldn't paint it
But these 3 words say all I love you you you
You you you
I love you you you
You you you you you
I love...
I hate that you got this power over me
You came and took possession in my soul
Now you so in my system
My vital signs missin
And you ain't here so I can't let you go
And they don't understand why I still be here when you be all gone
I'm starin in the mirror sayin damn I really love him
I just can't explain I just can't explain it
Picasso couldn't paint it
But these 3 words say all I hate you you you
You you you
I hate you you you
You you you you you
I don't know why when he hurts me I'm still here
And why do I love him through all these tears
Maybe cause we've been together all these years
And maybe on the low it's my one true fear I know I can't change it
So why am I complaining?
I know it sounds insane but I'm still stayin
Cause deep inside I love him
And deep inside I hate him
And these 3 words say all I love you you you
You you you
You you you
You you you you you I love, I hate
I love, I hate
I love, I hate
I gotta love...
I hate, I love

I hate, I love
I hate, I love
I hate, I love you you you
You you you
You you you
