

Toy Soldier

Keri Hilson

i guess i Fell in love with a Toy soldier You told me that ill love would keep marching on Hoo-rah, Hoo-rah
You told me that our love was mighty strong Hoo-rah, Hoo-rah
and yes i believed you cause you were my baby Why would i doubt you when you said you love me
But i didnt know you were the enemy The only one who made me cry, Is you and the only one i had to fight, is you
And it was you who told me
He said that i will never have to fight again
he said that i will never have to cry again
is safe with him
All my trust i'll give it to him
So i guess i fell in love with a toy soldier Told me that you would take care of me, You lied You Lied you Told me that you was the best for me, You lied You lied Cause you came up empty i feel like you tricked me Everything you said you'd give me you couldnt give me (Yeah) Cause the only one who made me cry, Is you
and the only one i had to fight, is you
And it was you who told me
is safe with him
All my trust i'll give it to him
So i guess i fell in love with a toy soldier I let down my guard cause you were my guard
But Who protects me Now Cause i gave you my heart
Then You tore it apart OOooOOh You Let me Down
is safe with him
All my trust i'll give it to him
So i guess i fell in love with a toy soldier I gave all of my love to him
Hoo-rah, Hoo-rah
I gave all of my love to him
Hoo-rah, Hoo-rah
