

Hangnail

Nickelback

My hopes just fell and I can't see the reason why
why there is blood on my sleeve
And all this time, I thought it was mine
But it's not, it's yours and It's not worth it for me gets harder every time I call you
This life you lead
like living in a shiny ballroom
Next time you bleed, right about this time tomorrow
Next time you steal, better ask before you borrow
And I don't see too well, don't sing too well
And so I settle to scream
Just grab your shit and leave with it
They won't make no statues of you
It's not worth it for me
Gets harder every time I call you
This life you lead
Like living in a shiny ballroom
Next time you bleed, right about this time tomorrow
Next time you steal, better ask before you borrow
This label theif, what a better title suited for you
This tidal wave, its coming down upon you
This time I forgot it
I swear this shit was rotten
This time I believe it Cause I've seen the shit you're needing
