

Outside Looking In

Nick Lachey

Paper houses and fallen angels and times you can't see in front of you wasted moments tried to be someone I never wanted to be for you but I feel my world coming back to life my eyes are finally open again now I see it all in a different light I'm standing on the outside finally on the outside looking in reaching out into unknown spaces with nothing left here to blur the view now I know i've got to find this picture frozen in my mind of a life I never knew
but I feel my world coming back to life
now I see it all in a different light I'm standing on the outside Finally on the outside looking in I'm tearing out the page breathing for a change and it feels so good to feel myself coming back to life I'm finally on the outside
and I feel my world coming back to life and my eyes are finally open again and now I see it all in a different light and I'm standing on the outside finally on the outside looking in
