

New Year's Resolution

Lootpack

My New Year's resolution
This is my New Year's resolution
Spontaneous freestyles are the solution
Crazy hip hop and you don't stop
Don't believe what you believe or believe what you believe
And end up being those MC's who be leaving
Don't believe what you believe, believe what you believe
And end up being those MC's who be leaving
For the new year I swear, this rhyme be rare when you hear
A Madlib drum, bass kick, snare
Wild Child compiles styles down for your ear
LP for you and yours, loud and clear
When the first Lootpack era began a demo tape was formed Unexpectedly, wack A and R's swarmed and started a cosmic storm Everywhere I turned got burned thus learned I must earn Full acknowledgment of this whole rap game on my own Realizing I couldn't get mad at labels, labels weren't able To see the rhythmic era Wild Child was throwing at the table
I said, "Honestly, I couldn't get mad at a little blind person"
Who would sleep on a Lootpack LP and ask me to define versing?
I defy rehearsing, specifically
I defy all those who apply cursing
To their limited freestyles they kick
When it's time to unlock those lyrical glock flows, I dip, dip dive Madlib rush from the left as we kick ish live
I can rhyme, a spontaneous freestylin' rhyme
I just concentrate on my ish 'cause I got props to get
For the new year I swear, this rhyme be rare when you hear
A Madlib drum, bass kick, snare
Wild Child compiles styles down for your ear
LP for you and yours, loud and clear
There's no advantage one gains when sustaining two faces
The disadvantage of being two-faced, you can't be in two places
Who races against the law of physics supplying logic
Can't avoid being destroyed by Wild Child, so why dodge it?
When it comes to dropping freestyles, Wild Child front and center
Like Jack Nicholson at Laker games, it's time for the pack to enter
An atmosphere where most record labels be making clones
Pre-programming the artists so it's like it's all about making bones I'm the type of MC to drop rhymes with the unexpected
Come with some unstereotype of rhymes that mad unpredicted
That type of artist, pointing out MC's who try to be the hardest
Props to the Jackson family for the influence they've taught us Cause I can rhyme, a spontaneous freestylin' rhyme
I just concentrate on my ish 'cause I got props to get
For the new year I swear, this rhyme be
rare when you hear
A Madlib drum, bass kick, snare

Wild Child compiles styles down for your ear
LP for you and yours, loud and clear
Don't believe what you believe, believe what you believe
And end up being those MC's who be leaving
Don't believe what you believe, believe what you believe
And end up being those MC's who be leaving
Resolution, this is my new year's resolution
Spontaneous freestyles are the solution, yeah
Crazy hip hop and you don't stop
Crazy hip hop, crazy hip hop and you don't stop
