

Crushing Me

Stabbing Westward

I'm feeling the weight of the world
and it's crushing me
I'm feeling the weight of everyday life
and it's crushing me
how much more
will it take
how much more
until it breaks me
this world
is crushing me
I'm feeling the weight of the world
and it's crushing me
I'm feeling the weight of everyday life
and it's crushing me
how much more
will it take
how much more
until it breaks me
this world
is crushing me
is crushing me
I'm feeling the weight of the world
and it's crushing me
I'm feeling the hate of the world
and it's crushing me
I swallow the hate
betrayal and lies
I swallow it whole
and shove it deep down inside of me feeling the weight of the world
and it's crushing me
and it's crushing me
and it's crushing me
and it's crushing me
I swallow the hate
betrayal and lies
I swallow it whole
how much more
will it take
how much more
until it breaks me

feeling the weight of the world
and it's crushing me
