

Hideaway

Passion Pit

'Cause I love you in the way
That you love me
You're a love, darling
And there's nothing to argue [Unverified] everyone is watching
What you're doing
Say your head is turning
Maybe you should stop running Hideaway, hideaway
Where you'll never say you cannot stay
Come and take my heart away
Someday everything will be okay
You're not strong so you
You can hurt sometimes
You don't mean to
Hurting hurts [unverified] What you're doing to What's in your, what you mean
To say is that always worth
Take a deep breath as soon as you Hideaway, hideaway
Where you'll never say you cannot stay
Come and take my heart away
Someday everything will be okay What's the point to lose?
Feel nothing, this is life
As we stand [unverified]
Hideaway, hideaway
Where you'll never say you cannot stay
Come and take my heart away
Someday everything will be okay, okay
