

Sad Tonight

Chelsea Cutler

My friends tell me I'm good
Why can't I feel it too?
When the drink hits lips, I All I taste is you
Make the most of my days
I tell myself that you're gone
I don't wanna be right if
Missing you is so wrong It hits me like a tsunami
I feel you over my body
Oh yeah, I hate being so damn honest
You have my heart but you don't even want it, no
You don't even want it
I'll let my friends take me out
On another night to some bar I know you never liked
Kiss somebody who's not my type
And it won't feel right So let me be sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
'Cause it feels so right
Yeah, it feels so right You're all over my mind
I tried to find a new muse
Can't believe what you did, no
And I don't really want to
I got thoughts in my mind, yeah
And they feel so loud
I could pretend that I'm fine but
I don't really know how
It hits me like a tsunami
Oh, I feel you over my body
Oh yeah, I hate being so damn honest
You have my heart but you don't even want it, no
You don't even want it I'll let my friends take me out
On another night to some bar I, I know you never liked
Kiss somebody who's not my type
And it won't feel right So let me be sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight (so let me be)
Sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
'Cause it feels so right
Yeah, it feels so right (so let me be) So let me be sad tonight, sad tonight, sad tonight
So let me be
'Cause it feels so right
Yeah, it feels so right
