

So Bad (feat. HAIM)

Gesaffelstein

Please don't be so bad
I still feel you there
Tears, they fell so many How could I be so wrong?
How could I be so strong?
Nothing else compares
How could I be so wrong?
How could I be so strong? I came to find death
I stayed for life
I came here foolish
I left here wise
I'm waiting for something I can't deny
A truth, a sermon, a sacrifice
I wanna wake up and all is love
Forget the trouble I made up
The waves are coming
Across the shore
These dreams of mine
Go on and on How could I be so wrong?
How could I be so wrong?
I came to find death
I stayed for life
I came here foolish
I'm waiting for something I can't deny
A truth, a sermon, a sacrifice
I wanna wake up and all is love
Forget the trouble I made up
The waves are coming
Across the shore
These dreams of mine
Go on and on
