

Go Easy

Matt Maeson

My own reflection's making me sick
I've been this way since my faith quit
And I never asked for this pain, it's taking me over
It's taking me over
It's making me colder
If I broke it, would you quit?
Is this heartache we can fix?
In the morning, when we wake
When I'm sober, would you stay?
If I broke it, would you quit?
Is this heartache we can fix?
In the morning, when we wake
When I'm sober...
Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged
Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged
My own deception is moving too quick
I tried to love and I lost it
And I never wanted to change, it's taking me over
It's taking me over
It's making me colder
If I broke it, would you quit?
Is this heartache we can fix?
In the morning, when we wake
When I'm sober, would you stay?
If I broke it, would you quit?
Is this heartache can fix?
In the morning, when we wake
When I'm sober...
Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged
Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me

I know love Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love Well, I know love Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged Please, just go easy on me, baby
Go easy on me, baby
Can you understand it?
I can't keep living for the damaged Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love Can't change me
Can't save me
Can't blame me
I know love
