

Lovers in the Parking Lot

Solange

Left your heart behind when I laid eyes and said I'm up and done.
The young just live and don't look back or wait for anyone;
And baby, you loved me, but I just up and wanted to run. Back and forth, behind and down,
when you were in and I was out,
Me chasing lovers in the front line of the parking lot,
And baby, I loved you, but I was not done having my fun... Played around with your heart;
Now I'm playing around in the dark... (Ooh...)
Played around with your heart;
Now I'm paying while we're apart... (Ooh, yeah...)
Played around with your heart; (Played around with your heart...)
Guess I played myself from the start... (Ooh...)
Played around with your heart...
Where, oh where's the man that landed in my hands when I'd say fall?
I pushed you head over my heels until I pushed too far,
And baby, I need you, but you just don't want nothing at all. Back and forth behind and down
when you were in and I was out;
Me chasing lovers in the front line of the parking lot,
And baby, I'd tell you, but you won't give the number to call... I played around with your heart;
Now I'm laying around in the dark... (Ooh...)
Played around with your heart;
Now I'm paying while we're apart... (Ooh, yeah...)
Played around with your heart; (Played around with your heart...)
Guess I played myself from the start... (Ooh...)
Played around with your heart... I want you back; (You back...)
I've been playing around with your heart too long, whoo,
And now, I played around and got caught,
And now, I played myself and got lost...
Oh baby, I played around with your heart,
And now, I'm playing around in the dark... (Ooh...)
Played around with your heart,
Now I'm paying while we're apart... (Ooh, yeah...)
Oh, baby, now I played around with your heart; (Played around with your heart...)
I guess I played myself from the start... (Ooh, ooh, ooh...)
Played around with your heart...
