

Next Life (feat. Krewella)

Adventure Club & Crankdat

How can it feel so right?
When all the signs are saying it's the wrong time
So don't look me in the eye It's hard enough for me to say goodbye Running outta love
Let me go and don't look back
I could take a boast that
I'm a mess you know that
Static on the phone
Heaven knows I won't forget promises I had to break So maybe in the next life (In the next life)
If we meet in the next life (In the next life)
I'll be waiting there for you, I'mma see you soon
Find me at the end, we'll start again
Oh oh, maybe in the next life
I'll be waiting there for
You
You
You
I'll be waiting there for
You
You
You
Keep all the memories
It's the piece of me that's always gonna stay
Just breathe, you know underneath
When it's you and me, it's never too late Running outta love
Let me go, don't look back
I could take a boast that
But I'm a mess you know that
Static on the phone
Heaven knows I won't forget promises I had to break
So maybe in the next life (In the next life)
If we meet in the next life (In the next life)
I'll be waiting there for you, I'mma see you soon
Find me at the end, we'll start again
Oh oh, maybe in the next life
I'll be waiting there for You
You
You
I'll be waiting there for
You
You
You
