

Jars

Chevelle

Hold onto chance
Lest we bleed ourselves
Then save for the pets
They're the loneliest Put into jars
We'll save this Earth
Put into jars
We'll save this Earth We can't both become the same pawn
That's made to fall
Oil that taste like
Blood stole the summer scent
From me to you
You're stabbing me through you
You're stabbing you through him
And betting most of
This world
We'll add enough of the world Steal from yourselves
It never felt so good
And fit from their hands
Confuse by opposites Put into jars
We'll save this Earth
Put into jars
Keep safe this Earth We can't both become the same pawn
That's made to fall
Oil that taste like
Blood stole the summer scent
From me to you
You're stabbing me through you
You're stabbing you through him
And betting most of
This world
We'll add enough of the world
This world
We'll add enough of the world Feeling manic for a day
Depends on the trend
Depends on the surface
If the sun never sets We can't both become the same pawn
That's made to fall
Oil that taste like
Blood stole the summer scent
From me to you
You're stabbing me through you
You're stabbing you through him

And betting most of
This world
This world
Is the main thing you'll shout
'Till the bitter end
Into Jars
