

Hide

Red

I am crawling blind
Followed by, what I left inside
For you, just you
I'm caught in place
What I can't erase I will run and hide until
And I will leave behind a Close my eyes
These voices stay
Haunting me, I can't escape
For you, just you
Time will always wait
While I throw away
What I can't replace
I will run and hide until
And I will leave behind a I will run and hide until
And I will leave behind a
I will run and hide
And I will leave behind a I will run and hide until
And I will leave behind a I will never find
