

Yours Again

Red

I can almost feel You breathing
Like a whisper in my ear
I remember how You lost me
Or how I lost You
I stare into the blackness
It's staring back at me
Why did I try to live without You?
I want You
I need You Open up my eyes
I need Your light again
Burning me inside
I need Your love again
I can feel our hearts collide
I can feel our hearts ignite
Open up my eyes
I'm Yours again
Will I wake up from this moment?
Will I see You slip away?
Or is this a new beginning?
Of beauty and rage?
Where did I lose my passion?
Where did I stop to fade?
Without You my world is darkness
I won't let go again Open up my eyes
I need Your light again
Burning me inside
I need Your love again
I can feel our hearts collide
I can feel our hearts ignite
Open up my eyes
I'm Yours again I'm Yours again
I'm never letting go I'm Yours again Open up my eyes
I need Your light again
Burning me inside
I need Your love again
I can feel our hearts collide
I can feel our hearts ignite
Open up my eyes
I'm Yours again
