

The Taste, The Touch

Asteria

So this is it
The feeling that ive missed
A subtle kind of pain
That keeps me from sleep
Try to explain
How your touch drives me insane
And i can't spend a night
Without wishing i was with you
Wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If i told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it
Would you swear to keep it
I'm watching you dance
I'm seeing you smile
Still getting butterflies
Every once in a while
Feelings insist on falling
Twist on lust
A choice to care
A wish to touch
Wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If i told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it
Would you swear to keep it
When you say never I'll say lie
When you say always I'll say true
When you say love
I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you
Wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If i told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it

Would you swear to keep it
