

Coming Home

Gavin James

cause I was never good at running away 'till you ran away nothing feels the same see I was cut between the lighted shape through the hours of darkness I found your name I left my heart at the lowest places lost all my graces in midnight flames See I was never good at running away 'till you ran away, eh eh
When are you coming home?
I'm tired of missing you when you're gone if distance makes our hearts grow stronger we'll live longer, but I'm dying to know when are you coming home you coming hooooome?
Ooh hoooh ooh see I was blinded by the neon lights lost my eyes in the angels that sold me lies empty promisses and warning signs left a light burning out like fireflies no need to talk, baby it's alright
when the words are right they keep you up at night ooohh ooooooooooh
When are you coming home
tired of missing you when you're gone if distance makes our hearts grow stronger we'll live longer
Oh oh ohhhhh woahhhohoh woahhhoh ooohooahhh see I was never good at running away till you ran away
