

Why Worry

Dire Straits

Baby I see this world has made you sad
Some people can be bad
The things they do, the thing they say
But baby I'll wipe away those bitter tears
I'll chase away those restless years
That turn your blue skies into grey
Why worry, there should be laughter after pain
There should be sunshine after rain
These things has always been the same
So why worry now
Baby when I'm down I turn to you
And you make sense of what I do
I know it isn't hard to say
But baby just when this world seems mean
Our love comes shining red and gold and cold
And all the rest is by the way
Why worry, there should be laughter after pain
There should be sunshine after rain
There things has always been the some
So why worry now. Bis
