

You and I

Caribou

It's a light
I can always count on
Timeless heart For things I can't explain
You and I
You were always with me
Like a light
From inside Hey
Hey
Now you're gone
And I'm left here waiting
Just because some things
The things I can't throw away I can try
But it's so frustrating
It feels like there's a hole inside
That just won't go away
You can take your place up in the sky
I will find a way to carry on down here
Just as long as you are here
We can only make it if you try
There's a reason why it's calm down here
Come and whisper in my ear You can take your place up in the sky
