Poltergeist

I started all of the wars
I started all of the wars
I've been getting messages from my deep waters
I'd be a resentful caretaker
Blame me for your false indicators
You mistaken all my mistakes for my crooked natureOh my God, I think I saw a ghost
He follow me everywhere I go
He don't even try to get creative
I smell a clown looking goofy dressed up as a nativeWhy'd you call me here?
You don't even know
Acting like a fool when you mull it over
Make it go away
You won't even know
Baby looking cool smoking on a clover
I started all of the wars
I started all of the wars
I've been getting messages from my deep waters
I'd be a resentful caretaker
Blame me for your false indicators
You mistaken all my mistakes for my crooked natureOh my God, I think I saw a ghost
Why you here walking around on my home street?
Pardon me
Cut your shoulder, you've been affected
I smell the chemicals, I don't see miracles
I'm at the pinnacle, you're so material
Oh did ya get your money?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I started all of the wars
I started all of the wars
I've been getting messages from my deep waters
I'd be a resentful caretaker
Blame me for your false indicators
You mistaken all my mistakes for my crooked nature
(Call me up, call me up, call me up, call me up)
