

Running Back

TGT

Losing you
I never thought that I would get so lost
Now this house is not a home anymore
But I was fly enough to walk away
And now I cry about every day
This is the price that I don't wanna pay I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
Girl I know you said you're giving up
You say come in and had enough
You're almost falling out of love
Girl I know I'm no good
But I'm lost without you by my side
Where do I go from here
I know you said you're done but I refuse to let go so... I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
Baby I cried for you tonight
Oh yea yea
No excuses, everything I did baby
I can't lie, everything I did baby
I messed it up with you, didn't want what I can do
Let's beg forgiveness baby, I'm running back to you
(I'm running back) Baby I need you more
Baby I need you more
Baby I need you more
I'm going insane I said I'm running back to you, to you
I said I'm running back to you, to you
I'll be running back to you
I'll be running back to you
I'll be running back to you
I need your love I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
I'm running back, I'm running back to you
I'm running back, I'm running back to you

I'm running back, I'm running back 'cus I need your love
Put em up in the air
