

Mistaken (feat. Steve Davit)

Marian Hill

I've been trynna wipe you out of my mind
Begging you to call me some other time
Looking in the new view, hoping that I leave you behind
Thinking bout the things I know I should do, thinkin bout how I don't ever need you
Thinking bout you daily, thinking maybe you should come through
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
Thought I could deny this craving, call me crazy, now I'm caving
Thought that I could break it, but I think you know
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no no no
I've been trynna kick you out if my head
Gathered all the extra space in my bed
Fallen into bad dreams, then I think about what you said
Girl you got the high life of a time swing
& I like it like a lowkey summer time drink
Don't know how to fight it, tell me baby what do you think?
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
Thought I could deny this craving, call me crazy, now I'm caving
Thought that I could break it, but I think you know
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no no no
There ain't no, there ain't no, there ain't no, there ain't no, there ain't no
Tried so hard to get free, breaking with the current wood
Up by heart, couldn't see, you were right in front of me
I can't sleep, can't you see?
Baby what'd you do to me?
Tried so hard, now I see, now I see, now I see
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
I've been trynna shake it, but I know there ain't no mistaken
Thought I could deny this craving, call me crazy, now I'm caving
Thought that I could break it, but I think you know there ain't no mistaken
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no no no
There ain't no mistaken
There ain't no no no no

There ain't no mistaken
