

Destiny

Firewind

One touch, one breath,
I'm drowning in your sweet confusion
I won't let go
As long as you will show, your passion
One path, one sin,
The road leads you all to nowhere
No fear, it's clear, I'll be there for you
I never knew, I can feel this way
Out of the blue, memories remain
Seize your destiny, here she comes
Switch it for tomorrow
Leave your misery, seize the day
It will make you stronger
We can run away, come along
I see, the sons, but I ...still can't leave you
Behind, because, ...
You never knew, how you could feel this way
Out of the blue, memories remain
Seize your destiny, here she comes
Switch it for tomorrow
Leave your misery, seize the day
It will make you stronger
We can run away, come along
And forget your sorrow
Oh, it's your destiny, it's your destiny
It's your destiny, whoa X 2
