

Wooly

Breathe Carolina

What's up? Did I give in too much
Or was it never enough?
The walls are rising up
Is it too late to learn? It's time
Starting to turn on me as if I stole its memory
Left alone, I'm gone and forgotten
So close to breaking me out And I wish you well
I'm the storm giving you hell
So take cover
'Cause I'm not the only one
I'm not the only one
Let's go
I'm not the only one
You're killing everyone
I'm not the only one You're never close enough
You're too far behind
Stripped to the bone
No heart to find I'm falling
Nothing to break my fall
I'm dying
I won't feel anything at all And I wish you well
I'm the storm giving you hell
So take cover
'Cause I'm not the only one
I'm not the only one
I wish you well
You won't drag me to hell
And you'll never
You'll be the only one
You'll be the only one Come back to me
Your heart's not breathing
Come, come back to me
Your heart's not breathing Please don't drag me down with you
Never
Dragging me down with you Please don't drag me down
Never
Dragging me down with you I'm the storm giving you hell
So take cover
'Cause I'm not the only one And I wish you well
I'm the storm giving you hell
So take cover
'Cause I'm not the only one

I'm not the only one I wish you well
You won't drag me to hell
And you'll never
