

Revelry

Kings of Leon

What a night for a dance, you know I'm a dancing machine
With a fire in my bones and the sweet taste of kerosene
I get lost in the light, so high I don't want to come down
To face the loss of the good thing that I had found
Woo hoo hoo
Woo hoo hoo
In the dark of the night, I can hear you calling my name
With the harvest of hearts I still feel full of pain
So I drink and I smoke, and I ask you if you're ever around
Even though it was me who drove us right in the ground
See, the time we shared, it was precious to me
But all the while, I was dreaming of revelry
Born to run, baby, run like a stream down a mountainside
With the wind at my back, I don't ever even bat an eye
Just know it was you all along who had a hold of my heart
But the demon and me were the best of friends from the start
So the time we shared it was precious to me
All the while I was dreaming of revelry
Dreaming of revelry
And I told myself, "Boy, away you go"
It rained so hard it felt like snow
Everything came tumbling down on me
In the back of the woods, in the dark of the night
The paleness of the old moonlight
Everything just felt so incomplete
Dreaming of revelry
Dreaming of revelry
Dreaming of revelry
Dreaming of revelry
