

Copy of A

Nine Inch Nails

I'm just a copy of a copy of a copy
Everything I say has come before
Assembled into something, into something, into something
I am never certain anymore I'm just a shadow of a shadow of a shadow
Always trying to catch up with myself
I'm just an echo of an echo of an echo
Listening to someone's cry for help Look what you have just done
Why all the change of heart
You need to play your part
A copy of a copy of a...
Now look what you've gone and done
Well, that doesn't sound like fun
See, I'm not the only one
A copy of a copy of a...
I am little pieces
Pieces that were picked up on the way
Invented with a purpose
A purpose that's become quite clear today Look what you have just done
Why all the change of heart
You need to play your part
A copy of a copy of a...
Now look what you've gone and done
Well, that doesn't sound like fun
See, I'm not the only one
A copy of a copy of a... I'm just a finger on a trigger on a finger
Doing everything I'm told to do
Always my intention, my intention, your intention
Just doing everything you told me to Look what you have just done
Why all the change of heart
You need to play your part
A copy of a copy of a...
Now look what you've gone and done
Well, that doesn't sound like fun
See, I'm not the only one
A copy of a copy of a... Look what you have just done
Why all the change of heart
You need to play your part
A copy of a copy of a copy of a...
Look what you've gone and done
That doesn't sound like fun
Yeah, I'm not the only one

A copy of a copy of a copy of a copy of a...
