

Bulletproof Vest (feat. Colbie Caillat)

Dave Stewart

What are you trying hide?
You won't let me inside
The fear is only in your mind
I can see it in your eyes I try to get through to you
But I don't know what to do
You're making it hard
To get to your heart
And it seems these days
That everybody wears
A bulletproof vest
If love is a weapon
Shot from my heart-shaped gun
It only hurts you
When you try to turn and run.
When will you see
That you don't need
A bullet proof vest? Please take it off for me
I won't shoot
I'll let you breathe
I wanna feel you feeling me
Oh, baby, love is all you'll bleed And I try to get through to you
But I don't know what to do
You're making it hard
To get to your heart
And it seems these days,
That everybody wears
A bullet proof vest
If love is a weapon
Shot from my heart-shaped gun
It only hurts you
When you try to turn and run.
When will you see
That, baby, with me
you don't need
A bullet proof vest? Take it off for me
Baby, love is all you need
Baby, take it off for me
Love is all you need If love is a weapon
Shot from my heart-shaped gun
It only hurts you
When you try to turn and run.
