

Castaway

Zac Brown Band

Pour me another one, make it a strong one, we're gonna have some fun tonight.

I wanna be a castaway, and leave the world behind.

Take a tropic holiday, say goodbye to keepig time.

Wasting away down by the coast, pacifico and chasing line.

Easy living down in paradise.

Pour me another one, make it a strong one, we're gonna have some fun tonight.

Just like the other one, make it a double rum, we're gonna castaway tonight.

I'm in an island state of mind, don't think I'm ever gonna leave.

I'd rather stay and watch the waves, move the sand beneath my feet.

Reggae on the radio, laying low and feeling hot.

Easy living down in paradise.

Pour me another one, make it a strong one, we're gonna have some fun tonight.

Just like the other one, make it a double rum, we're gonna castaway tonight.

Castaway.

Ride the waves like we're young, as time flies by and soon we'll be older.

It's better to live in the moment

Than stuck in the past fast asleep as the world passes by.

AY YAY OH The reality is history.

OH YO AY Come and castaway with me.

AY YAY OH The good times are free and nobody can take that away.

OH YO AY Come and castaway with me.

Pour me another one, make it a strong one, we're gonna have some fun tonight.

Just like the other one, make it a double rum, we're gonna castaway tonight. (Castaway we gonna let the sunshine in.) Pour me another one, make it a strong one, we're gonna have some fun tonight.

Just like the other one, make it a double rum, we're gonna castaway tonight.
