

Dream

Kevin Ross

All I seem to lose
Lets think about us
Im missing you much, baby Sleeping without you is such a loss
Im hoping that you feel the same
And it would be crazy if you werent Like a head on a frame
No side or pain
That would be harmless And hes about to hope youre hurt
And its not a shame to give him away
As long as its not in vain
So dont make me dream
If I dont want to
I want you here in reality
So dont make me dream
Unless it would take me to where I wanna be
So dont make me dream, dream If I had to choose Baby your love, and you know that
Id be on a first flight straight to you
Id give it all up
No hesitation Its not a price so much your word
No matter how far away
How long it may take
For me to give it So Ill offer it with no return
And its not a shame to give him away
As long as its not in vain
So dont make me dream
If I dont want to
I want you here in reality
So dont make me dream
Unless it would take me to where I wanna be
So dont make me dream, dream Save me some fun when Ill get it
Cause I dont wanna close my eyes
If it makes longer nights
Here, baby, dont make me dream If I got here what I want, in reality
So dont make me dream
Unless it would take me to where I wanna be
So dont make me dream, dream
Baby dont make me, baby dont make me dream
Baby dont make me dream
Baby dont you make me dream If I ever told you that everything you thought you knew was a
And that your reality is a state of delusion
If its not today, its tomorrow

But one day youll be ready to wake up
