

Shame

Keith Urban

What you heard is true.
The disappointing truth
Cause I don't like to lose
Shame on me shame on me
Promises I made and bills I never paid
Another missed birthday
Shame on me, shame on me that I burned and lovers that I hurt
Lessons never learned
Shame on me shame on me Hey I'm not trying to be perfect
It's not like it's worth it
Everyone hurts the same
Hey I'm not trying to be special
Cause I ain't no angle
Everyone hurts the same
What a shame
I repeat my words
Sometimes they seem rehearsed
And I speak out of term
Shame on me shame on me that I burned and lovers that I hurt
Lessons never learned
Shame on me shame on me Hey I'm not trying to be perfect
It's not like it's worth it
Everyone hurts the same
Hey I'm not trying to be special
Cause I ain't no angle
Everyone hurts the same
What a shame
That were hiding underneath our skin
And were scared to let somebody in
Nobody showed us how to live
Or how to be perfect
It's not like it's worth it Hey I'm not trying to be perfect
It's not like it's worth it
Everyone hurts the same
Hey I'm not trying to be special
Cause I ain't no angle
Everyone hurts the same
What a shame I'm not trying to be perfect
It's not like it's worth it
Everyone hurts the same
Hey I'm not trying to be special
Cause I ain't no angle

Everyone hurts the same
What a shame.
