

My Ol' Bronco

Luke Bryan

Ain't no doors and no windows
Just a rope ol' radio
If it rained you're gonna get wet
But that ol' 3 ol' 2 ain't laying me down yet
It's a cut out picture of the 70's
When everything felt so free
It's shallow and a little bit of rust
Looking good for 42 years young
Ten sets of tires, 100 bonfires
And it can still tear up a back road
It was built for a day like this
A clear blue sky and a white sand kiss
It's 3 on the 3 and getting down for going slow
My Ol' Bronco!
I flipped it over up on Arno Hill
Turned it back over and fixed the grill
And you know where I've been by that old, old spot
Most times it's in a beach bar parking lot
Know it ain't hard to pick me up
'Cause it's the only one in this town
It's shallow and a little bit of rust
Looking good for 42 years young
Ten sets of tires, 100 bonfires
And it can still tear up a back road
It was built for a day like this
A clear blue sky and a white sand kiss
It's 3 on the 3 and getting down for going slow
Know I won't ever let her go
My Ol' Bronco, my Ol' Bronco
It's shallow and a little bit of rust
Looking good for 42 years young
Ten sets of tires, 100 bonfires
And it can still tear up a back road
It was built for a day like this
A clear blue sky and a white sand kiss
It's 3 on the 3 and getting down for going slow
Know I won't ever let her go
My Ol' Bronco, my Ol' Bronco
