

Zero Tolerance

Anthrax

The truth of humanity is far from insane
It's focused, it's cruel, it's heartbreak and pain
As if I needed more reasons to hate
A savage decision that's not hard to make
Family and friends, dare to threaten what's mine
I kill motherfuckers for crossing the line
Tighten the noose round my life and I choose
Murder and mayhem 'cause I'm worse than you
You're lying and I don't believe
Your message just so much bullshit
You're lying and I have no faith
A scab on humanity to be scraped off
You're vile and no less obscene Debasing what they find holy
Make yourselves right with your God
I am I am I am I am
(On your knees for)
I am fire I am death and
Judge you as I see fit
Struck down from your bully pulpit
Sticking your head on a pike
I am I am I am I am
(On your knees for)
I am fire I am death and
No one can take what is mine
You're selling delusion as virtue
Happily suffering the fools
Murder and mayhem 'cause I'm worse than you
I am I am I am I am
I am fire I am death and I am fire I am death and Humans kill each other and so often for every reason there is including none
Extreme school, inhuman rule, brutality nowhere to run
And on the day you meet your god what will he say?
Zero tolerance for extremism - in the name of religion
Zero tolerance for racial hate - no police state
Zero tolerance for politicians - on the left and the right
Zero tolerance for killing children - what would your god say to that motherfuckers?
The truth of humanity is far from insane
It's focused, it's cruel, heartbreak and pain
Tighten the noose round my life and I choose
Murder and mayhem 'cause I'm worse than you
I am fire I am death and I am fire I am death and
Humans kill each other and so often for every reason there is including none
Extreme school, inhuman rule, brutality nowhere to run
I am fire I am death and I am fire I am death I'm out.
